Beauty In Every Detail

When a legacy of excellence combines with architectural quality, distinctive finishes, and a perfect location, you have a new home destined to last a lifetime. Welcome to The Enclave on Lavista. Adjacent to historic Tucker in the heart of Dekalb County, this boutique community of 62 luxury estate homes was envisioned by John Wieland and is being brought to life by his experienced team at the JW Collection.

The JW Collection team of experts has perfected the craft of homebuilding. You see it in the details -- the beauty of the millwork, the quality of the cabinetry, and the superior appliances and fixtures. But be assured that behind the stunning finishes there is expert engineering; a careful selection of materials that are sustainable and suitable; and a team of professional project managers who oversee every detail of your home's construction from start to finish.

LUXURY LIVING INSIDE & OUT

Choose from a selection of spacious homes designed for better living. These homes feature open floor plans, luxurious primary suites, thoughtful kitchen design, large gathering rooms, cozy porches, and spacious gardens. Let our interior design experts help you customize your home to your personal taste.

And beyond your front door is a pristine community where you can stroll along peaceful streets, children can walk to school, and neighbors can gather in perfectly placed pocket parks.
